Studebaker "6"

Knight Templars and their ladies echoed the cheer and snapped their cameras

-The Studebaker Six carrying five men is the first car to make the ascent of Pikes Peak without the aid of block and takle. The Studebaker was preceded by a little runabout of the Push mobile type and by a light racing car-the crew of which made good use of an ingenious arrangement of blocks and tackle. The Studebaker was driven by W. W. Beeson, now manager of the Studebaker branch in Atlanta, Georgia.
